

GIFT GUIDE

For Teens

DIY Craft Supplies:

- Sketchbooks and Drawing Pencils: Great for the aspiring artist.
- DIY Jewelry Kits: Allow them to create their own accessories.
- Knitting or Crocheting Supplies: A beginner's kit for a cozy and creative hobby.

Books:

Choose books that align with their interests or introduce them to new topics. Consider fiction, non-fiction, or classic literature. If they enjoy a particular genre, find bestselling titles in that category.

Educational Board Games:

Select board games that combine fun and learning. Games like Scrabble, Settlers of Catan, or trivia games can enhance critical thinking and problem-solving skills.

Seed Packets or Small Indoor Plants:

Perfect for a teen interested in gardening.

Science Kits:

Explore their curiosity with science kits that allow them to conduct experiments at home. Kits covering topics like chemistry, physics, or robotics can be both educational and entertaining.

Educational Workshops or Classes:

Gift certificates for workshops or classes in subjects like photography, writing, coding, or any other area of interest. Many platforms offer online courses that teens can take at their own pace.

Snack Packs:

- Favorite Snacks: Put together a personalized snack pack with their favorite treats.
- Hot Chocolate or Tea Set: A cozy and affordable beverage option.
- Reusable Water Bottle: Stay hydrated in style.
