Who is Pathway and what is our Family Empowerment Program?

Pathway Caring for Children is a non-profit agency offering specialized case management as well as several other services to help children, teens and families connect with necessary resources.

Pathway's vision is to strengthen the lives of children and families.

Pathway has developed the Family Empowerment Program to honor and value each family's uniqueness while working with the families to blend new strategies into their every day lives.

FAMILY EMPOWERMENT

The Family Empowerment Program supports families in building trusting and healthy relationships.

The family empowerment specialist, therapist, children, and caregivers will meet to discuss the family's concerns and needs.

It helps caregivers learn how to best connect with and empower their child while also correcting challenging behaviors.

This program is appropriate for any families struggling to manage their children's behavior.
