About Pathway's T.R.U.S.T. (Teens Realizing and Understanding Selves Together) Adventure Therapy Camp: Pathway has responded to the needs of the teens we serve who have emotional and/or behavioral issues and we have developed our own therapeutic adventure therapy camp that will take place on July 16 thru July 20, 2023. Pathway strives to provide each teen in our care with a positive summer camp experience where trust and bonding will be promoted using adventure-based and experiential therapeutic programming. Adventure camp will take place at Koinonia Camp and Conference Center in Geneva, Ohio. http://www.christiancampohio.org/

Volunteer Title: Summer Camp Volunteer

Objective: To assist Pathway clinical staff in providing a therapeutic and positive summer camp experience for Pathway teens.

Responsibilities: *Positive role modeling to Pathway teens
* Encourage teens to participate in camp-related activities and group therapy processing.
* Follow lead from Pathway staff
* Adhere to Pathway's rules regarding client confidentiality
*Complete background checks

Commitment:

- A willingness to volunteer 5 days, 4 overnights at camp without compensation
- Mandatory camp orientation at Pathway's Jim Bridges Learning Center 1530 25th Street NE, Canton 44714: Monday, July 10 8:30am-2:00pm (may end early)
- Camp begins Sunday, July 16 at 11:00am at Pathway's Jim Bridges Learning Center (JBLC) and returns Thursday, July 20 at 5:00 p.m. at JBLC. Pathway provides transportation to and from Camp Koinonia.

Responsible To: Marketing Manager and Pathway staff who attend summer camps.

Resources: Orientation training to prepare for camp and supervision by Pathway clinical staff during camp. Orientation on 7/10/23 is mandatory to volunteer.

Requirements: A responsible individual who completes required background checks/screening process, attends mandatory orientation, and commits to volunteering 7/16-7/20.

For further questions, please contact Liz Hill at 330-818-0446 or lhill@pathwaycfc.org www.pathwaycfc.org